Minnesota Election.

After publishing the article which appeared in regard to the Minnesota election, which was prepared on Saturday, we received St. Paul papers of the 5th inst., which threw doubts upon the result, or rather favored a doughface victory. Last evening we received the St. Paul Times of the 6th inst., which, in a postscript says: "Later returns show almost an entire certainty of the Republicans having carried the Territory! Those known to be elected now count up Democrats 34, Republicans 35! One ahead, with districts to be heard from, which will probably throw two to one Republican!" We hope this good news and pleasant opinion will be confirmed.

Grain Business of Chicago.

There was shipped by Lake for the week ending Saturday night, 6th inst, from this port 5,096 bbls. of flour; 154,026 bushels of wheat, 491,527 bushels of corn, and 36,559 bushels of oats. And for the season since the opening of navigation, the exports by Lake were 47,563 bbls of flour; 1,091,022 bushels of wheat; 1,-135,197 bushels of corn, and 97,569 bushels of oats.

The shipments of wheat last season up to June 7th, were only 461,298 bushels; but of corn there were 2,106,102, and of oats 91,601.

Prices on that day were low. Spring wheat was quoted at 91a93c in store; corn 29a30c, on board; oats dull at any price—nominally selling at 27a30c.

Such prices, of course, would not call out produce, yet twice as much corn had come forward at 29 cents per bushel, as has this season, at prices ranging from 65 to 75 cents.

On June 25th, 1856, there had been shipped from this port 2,500,000 bushels of corn, and 542,472 bushels remained in store.

Milwaukee has shipped this season, up to the 9th inst., 104,658 bbls. of flour, and 935,941 of wheat, 320 bushels corn, and 910 of oats. Last week it stood 96,072 bbls. of flour, and 891,435 bushels wheat, making shipments during the week of flour 8,583, bbls., and of wheat 44,506 bushels, or about one-fourth as much as Chicago.

CITY ITEMS.

THEY COME.—The hotels in the city last evening were crowded with guests from all parts of the country.

B. F. Taylor, of Chicago, will deliver the Oration at the approaching Commencement exercises of Lawrence University, Wisconsin.

CORRECTION.—The types made us say that No 1, South Water street, becomes, in the new enumeration, No. 2. Add a 0 to the 2 and you have it right.

STREET REPAIRS.—It will be borne in mind that Clark street Bridge stands open to prevent teams from crossing, until the street at either end is repaired. There is no interruption for footfolk.

SCOW SUNK.—Yesterday morning, a scow, having an engine aboard, which has been used for some time past in driving piles at the Randolph street bridge, was run into by a vessel going up the South Branch, and sunk. The engine was fished out without being materially injured.

☞ The number of deaths in Buffalo last month was 182. In Chicago during the same month there were 117. Does this argue that Chicago or Buffalo is the healthier town? How does the statistician of the Express? Perhaps it will say that Buffalo contains the most inhabitants, but the fact is otherwise, to the extent of thirty thousand at least.

DEAD.—The little girl, Ellen Cunningham, who was shot by the ruffian Hamilton, on Sunday afternoon, died yesterday morning, and will be buried to-day. It may not have been the intention of the murderer to kill her, but he fired to kill some one, missed his pursuers and hit the child. He should be severely dealt with.

THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS.—The Board of Supervisors had a short session yesterday, but nothing of importance was transacted. Prendergast, Democratic Supervisor from North Chicago, still continues his absence from meetings of the Board, ergo, doubtless, to his City Relations, upon which committee he should be at once enrolled.

BRIGANS.—We are in receipt of the following, written in a not uncharitable hand:

"Mr. EDITOR.—What shall we do to rid ourselves of the beggars, who make our ears tingle with their tales of distress, invented, almost every day, for the occasion? Can you tell?

Do, dear Madam, as Charity, guided by wisdom, should do; go to the homes of those who ask, and, if their distress is real, give; if not, hand the impostors over to the police. It is the only safe way.

LARCENY.—A young man named Morris Rice, was arrested yesterday, on a charge of purloining money from the drawer of his employers, Messrs. Wolf & Son, at 99 Milwaukee Avenue. The Wolfs, suspecting the faithlessness of Rice, marked some gold pieces and put them in the drawer as a bait, which was soon taken. Rice was examined by Justice Hickey, and required to give bail in the sum of $500 for his appearance before the Recorder's Court.

BRING ON YOUR JOB WORK.—Bring on your Job Work, if you want to have it done quickly, handsomely, correctly and cheaply; for although the TRIBUNE job office neither "prints 40,000 cards per hour," nor "keeps seventeen power presses running night and day," it will do your work to your satisfaction, and complete your order promptly when promised, and at a charge you will not dispute, if you are a reasonable individual, or a judge of what a piece of good work is worth. Bring on your printing and try the TRIBUNE Job Office.

A SAD CASE.—A mother, whose name, for obvious reasons, we suppress, was yesterday arrested on a charge of abandoning her child. It appears that the child was born before the mother was married, and that the father refused to support it. The mother, in consequence, was compelled to support herself and child by her own labor, and, finding it impossible to do so, left the child at the door of a neighbor, and went away. She was arrested and brought back, and the child was taken to the Alms House. The mother was discharged, and the child remains in the Alms House.

BURGLARY.—Some burglars broke into the office of Coe & Carpenter, on Michigan street, near McCormick's Reaper Factory, night before last. When they had obtained an entrance, they proceeded leisurely to fill the bag bain of the safe with gun powder, then attached a slow match and drew it up. The explosion shattered the safe door in places, broke all the windows in the office, wrenched the office door from its hinges and drove it through the ceiling. The burglars, after taking all the money from the safe, $30, and leaving some valuable papers undisturbed, decamped and succeeded in escaping, although hotly pursued by the police, who had been called to the spot by the noise of the explosion.

[COMMUNICATED.]

CHICAGO, June 9, 1857.

MR. EDITOR:—In glancing over the columns of the Democrat a day or two since, my eye rested upon the following:

THE CONNECTICUT RELIEF.—The active militia of Connecticut consists of 1,323 men. They are among 46 companies, and causing an expense to the State of $17,000, or $5,000 more than the year before, in consequence of the addition of a day to the fall encampment. As a set off to this expense the State has received $12,500 from the commutation fee of 50 cents imposed upon those who do not "train." The Adjutant General proposes that this commutation fee be raised to 75 cents or $1, so that the militia may be well supported without burdening the State treasury.

Now it has been a question in my mind, why this State has not followed the example of some others, in regard to the support of the Militia. It has been clearly proved, that beneficial results come from an adequate and well organized Militia. All agree bear witness to the fact. There is certainly the will and spirit in our midst to elevate the dignity and advance the prosperity of a well disciplined citizen soldiery; and it only needs the word and sanction of those who are in power to bring into action the might of the people. The State Treasury would not in the least suffer from such a movement, and to the people it would be a mere trifle.

There is another matter to which I would allude before closing this.

There never has been, (so far as my memory dates back in the history of Chicago,) any full organization of the Companies in this city—what I would infer is, that there never has been a Parade or General Review of the military in which all have joined. Now why is this? I see no reason that politics should so interfere with the military spirit of our thriving community, as to prevent them from appearing to their full force. In connection with this I perceive that Major Gen. Beaubien has informed the military of this city and district that on the 4th of July Qtr. Bissell will review them. Trusting that those concerned will lay aside all party prejudices and represent the Garden City in her might.

VIOLATION OF HEALTH ORDINANCE.—James Clark was fined $20 for violation of the health ordinance by emptying two barrels of refuse matter into the Lake.

VAGRANCY.—Adaline Kingsbury, a girl of about 17 years of age, was arrested and fined for vagrancy. She said that she belonged in Rockford and had run away from home. The justice after a severe reprimand discharged her.

POLICE MATTERS.—The police docket yesterday, was very small, and the offenses committed were of a minor nature.

The following persons were fined for getting drunk in Monday night's slumber: Brown, $2; Harvey, [illegible]; $5; James Hathicott, $2; Peter Maloy, $2; Michael Kearchy, $5.

NORTH'S NATIONAL AMPHITHEATRE.—One of the very best bills yet offered at this establishment is announced to-night. Lafayette, the famous dog and goat "pas de deux" by the sixteen Hercals, "Miss Agnes Robertson will assume six characters, and appears in variety of songs and dances. The entertainments will commence upon the arrival of the Baltimore train, in which Mr. G. F. Arnold will appear as Jeremiah Clip, in imitations of Horrix Forrest, and other distinguished actors. Miss Agnes Robertson will appear in her great character of Bob Nettles, in the piece of the same name, Mr. Bourcicault appearing as Moss. Torrettino, and the whole to be concluded with the farce of Jeremiah Clip, in which Miss Robertson exhibits her remarkable versatility of talent. Such a bill cannot fail to crowd the house.

WESTERN Coal and Wood Co. can't be beat in cutting wood and coal. Wood, sawed and split, $2.00 per cord. Prompt delivery and good measure. Office and yard 202 Clark street.

CHEAP GAS COAL.—We notice the arrival of a large lot of coal from Lake Erie, at the yard of J. H. Foote, Light House dock, of the best quality ever brought to this market, which he is selling at $6.00 per cord; sawed and split, $7.00 a cord. Office 72 Dearborn street, next door to the Post Office.

REAL ESTATE SALE.—Judge Morris, through A. C. Stanopoulos, sold yesterday, 40 feet on State Street east side—140 feet south of Madison Street, at $650 per foot. Eight Street is the name for the Broadway of Chicago—the fashionable retail street of the city. We are pleased to learn that this property has passed into the hands of a gentleman who intends to improve it with handsome stores.

BURNETT'S KALLISTON.—For removing tan, sunburn, freckles, and eruptions of the skin and for rendering the complexion clear and beautiful. It is admirably adapted to all natural comforts of the toilet. It will render it soft and smooth, relieving its granular parts, and inducing that fine action of the capillaries which give to the complexion both beauty and health.

Prepared only by Joseph Burnett & Co., Boston. For sale by J. H. Reed & Co.; Palmerton & Davis, and Dole & Bro., Chicago; and by Druggists generally at 50c and $1 per bottle. ap1-lw-eow-fm.

SINGER'S SEWING MACHINES.—In buying such an article as a sewing machine, the truest economy is to buy the best. Those who purchase Singer's machines always get what they want, and the more they are using them the more satisfied they become with their selection and pride, while those who buy any of the cheaper and inferior machines in the market, are sure to suffer disappointment, vexation and loss.

COMMERCIAL.

CHICAGO WHOLESALE MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE CHICAGO DAILY TRIBUNE, Tuesday Evening, June 9, 1857.

Receipts of Produce are again large, especially of Corn, by canal and railroad; the aggregate is above the capacity of the present commercial marine in the harbor, and freights are very slightly offering. The market opened in the morning on change, dull for corn at 75@76c in store, but closed off at this in store or 74c on board, from the effect of the New York news, shortening receipts amid and market buoyant at 74@ 75c. No receipts are yet had at New York by canal of Corn; as soon as receipts commence, the market will probably decline for a time. There is less excitement in the Wheat market, and prices remain high and steady. Oats are heavier, and but little selling, with a decline. Hay is still high; we note receipts of 80 bales pressed Tuesday to-day from Clarendon and Forrest, and other distinguished orators. Miss Agnes Robertson will appear in her great character of Bob Nettles, in the piece of the same name, Mr. Bourcicault appearing as Moss. Torrettino, and the whole to be concluded with the farce of Jeremiah Clip, in which Miss Robertson exhibits her remarkable versatility of talent. Such a bill cannot fail to crowd the house.

Money Market.

OFFICE OF E. E. EVERT, BANKER & BROKER, Tuesday Evening, June 9, 1857.

There has been much activity in the Money market during the past week that for several weeks previous. There has been a large loss discount on Eastern exchange—short paper. Bankers discount local paper in fair extent for their regular customers at 10 per cent. Country paper of short days and longer date paper being required to be made shorter or better.

Broken bills have been very abundant, and, in order to meet the demand, Bankers have to take all their bills of doubtful character, or refuse to buy. Bills on Buffalo, and Eastern exchange generally, are in good demand, and sell at a small premium. Gold is in good supply, and sells at par. The latter have frequently to be drawn payable with Eastern or New York funds.

Sales of real estate, there is quite a large amount of good paper offering, which is readily disposed of at current rates. Good business paper and collaterals, paper over-due, and any class notes find quick sale.

The Stock Exchange continues very active. The supply is large, but the demand is unusually large for the season of the year. Rates are low, and without any prospect of a decline for some time to come.

Philadelphia drafts are now sale, which are excessive supply.

St. Louis Exchange in very dull, and bankers refuse to buy. A large of short exchange [illegible] among

There is no sale for Bills on New Orleans, and quotations are merely nominal.

Our advices from New York quote money easy, and all Stocks in very buoyant demand. Investments have been slipped on New York within the past two days.

Currency is very plenty, and without any pressure, and considerable difficulty in finding customers. Rates 10@12 per cent.

Uncurrent Illinois is without much change. People's and Mechanics are in demand, and sell at par. Others at small discount.

The probability of the prosperity of a well disciplined citizen soldiery; and it only needs the word and sanction of those who are in power to bring into action the might of the people. The State Treasury would not in the least suffer from such a movement, and to the people it would be a mere trifle.

DAILY TRIBUNE.

No. 55 CLARK STREET.

CITY OF CHICAGO.

Wednesday Morning.....June 10, 1857.

Commencement of Volume XI.

THE TRIBUNE enters upon its Eleventh volume to-day. The first issue was struck on the 10th of June, 1847. It started off with about 400 daily subscribers, on a sheet little more than half its present size. It has now attained to a Tri-Weekly circulation of twice, a Daily of ten times and a Weekly of twenty times that number. Its advertising has kept pace with its circulation from the first issue, ten years ago, to the present time. It has grown with the growth of the city, "keeping step to the music of Chicago." It seems but a short space since our sheet first made its appearance; but within that brief period Chicago has multiplied her population seven fold, and her business and wealth in a much greater ratio. She had not then a mile of railroad; she has enough now to reach from here to London! Ten years ago Chicago was but little more populous than Racine, and less so than Peoria; now her yearly increase is greater than her then population. A decade ago she was smaller than Montreal, Quebec, Toronto, Buffalo, Cleveland, or Detroit: Sandusky, Toledo and Milwaukee were rivalling her equals, and the latter would scarcely deign to be considered a rival. To-day Chicago stands at the head of the class—the largest and most prosperous city in the valley of the St. Lawrence, and ranks third in population, and first in commerce, in the great West. And the sign is still onward, until the last rival, in the race of greatness, is left far behind.

The TRIBUNE is an institution—a power in the land. Whatever may be the progress of Chicago and the West, it is bound to keep "neck and girth" with their movement.

Arrest of the Mayor.

There is not a right-minded man in Chicago who will not attribute the Mayor's arrest on an absurd charge of stealing a certain number—eighteen, we believe—of canvass mail bags from the United States, to the meanest of motives. It is due to his rigorous and determined execution of the municipal laws, that this persecution, for we can call it nothing else, has been commenced—commenced, as is the boast, to be continued, just as long as he faithfully does the duty that he was elected to discharge. An agent of the government is the ostensible prosecutor; but behind him are persons who are animated by vindictive party hate, who do not so much desire the doing of justice as the disgrace of an enemy whom they fear. He has pitched into the Democracy by securing an observance of order, repressing rowdyism and, if occasionally punishing crime; and it is but natural that the leaders of that party should be burning for revenge. We assure them that they have adopted the poorest of methods to obtain it. The people always lovers of justice and anxious for fair play, will support more enthusiastically than ever before, the man against whom such malevolent attempts are made.

The Bank Fraud in Indiana.

The Indiana Legislature, at its last session, appointed a Committee, consisting of three Democrats and two Republicans, to investigate charges of fraud and corruption made by Gov. WRIGHT in his last message to the General Assembly, in relation to the charter of the Bank of the State of Indiana. This Committee has been in session at Indianapolis for some days, and being about to bring their labors to a close, a resolution was passed, granting to Governor WRIGHT and Judge SARPY the privilege of addressing the Committee in a place where the public could attend and listen to the arguments that both might bring to bear upon the case.

This discussion took place on Friday afternoon, in the Hall of the House of Representatives. The latter was crowded with spectators. This quarrel is in the Democratic family. The Bank of Indiana secured the passage of the Bank charter, sold out and pocketed the spoils. The WRIGHT faction tried to do something, but did not succeed, having been deprived of a share of the spoils, Governor WRIGHT is now endeavoring to secure the repeal of the Bank charter. In the discussion, Judge SARPY opposed Governor WRIGHT. The latter opened with a speech which was limited to an hour and a quarter. SARPY followed in a speech of an hour and three-quarters, and WRIGHT closed with a speech of half an hour. One of the BUTLERS finally dipped in toward the close.

It was, upon the whole, a rich scene. If honest men do not receive their dues as a result of this controversy, they will, at least, be able to understand something of political rascality."

The West did the Work.

It is not the least gratifying circumstance connected with the late discomfiture of the clerical friends of Slavery, at the New School Presbyterian General Assembly in Cleveland, that the movement by which they were forced to re-affirm the old doctrines of the Church on this matter of Human Chattelism, or boldly declare their belief in the insane absurdities of Calhoun, and withdrawn from all fellowship with the congregations of the North, came from the West. It was the constant complaint of the apologists for the women-whippers and man-stealers, that the West had pressed this matter upon them—that the West only stood in the way of some compromise—that the West was intractable. Thank God for the complaint and for the reality of the cause that produced it! The West could not have been more loudly praised. To her's the honor of standing in the first rank of those who are resisting the infamous heresies and anti-Christian aggressions of the madmen who have prostituted our government to the use of bondage, and now wish to debase Religion to the same unholy purpose.

Last Year's Ohio Wheat Crop.

Ohio harvested last year a very short wheat crop. Her annual yield of eighteen to twenty-five millions of bushels fell off ten or twelve millions. We have before us the AUDITOR'S returns of wheat and corn of TUSCARAWAS county, one of the best wheat growing counties in the State, for the year 1856. It foots up 36,500 acres of wheat sown, and 722,000 bushels of wheat harvested, or a little more than six bushels per acre. The yield of that county is not less than 800,000 bushels in good years. The corn crop fell off more than one half—one million bushels is the ordinary quantity grown—but year it only reached 446,000. The agreeable returns will be found in the reports from all the central counties of that State.

The War Steamer Niagara.

The American war steamer Niagara arrived in British waters a few weeks ago, pursuant to an order of Congress, to assist in the noble enterprise of laying down a telegraphic cable across the Atlantic ocean. John Bull was evidently "taken down" by her immense size, her beautiful proportions, her gigantic engine, her terrible defensive and aggressive power. He was much astonished to find that his largest and fleetest war steamer was but a fifteen along side of the Yankee catamount, which could blow out of water and sink at a broadside her biggest man-of-war; and he was surprised to learn the news that there were a dozen more of the "same sort" growing on the stocks. We publish, in another column, Mr. BUSH'S letter to the Queen, as expressed by his organ, the London Times.

Will Chicago Live Anything?

There are in three or four counties in Northern Michigan one or two thousand persons who must be aided by the charitable, to save them from starvation, until the next harvest comes around. These distressed settlers are Americans for the most part—neither Irish, Germans, Hungarians, nor natives of Modesty. Do not we of Chicago, during the present year, number 25,000 souls? Have we not a million of dollars at our command? Is there to be no immediate response to the appeal for aid? Will Chicago live anything?
